

The Direction of Education, Current New Methods are Module Credits

Rustamova Shahzoda Alievna ¹, Sadikova Yorkinoy Salijonovna ²

¹ Student of Samarkand State University named after Sharof Rashidov

² Head of the State Department of Legal Sciences

Abstract: this in the article High in education credit module in the system independent education organize of reaching advantages , independent of education student to the activity effect such as issues on the surface thoughts note done.

Key words: credit module system, innovative technology, independent education, pedagogue - student cooperation.

Education in the system today's in the day take going reforms human being and his for the benefit of service does _ Moreover , grow up coming young generation each bilaterally perfect , intellectual potential to be provides . Last in years education to the system attention each since when too increased. Only one example as President Shaukat Mirziyoyev "Uzbekistan Republic High education system until 2030 development concept confirmation on" No. PF-5847 of October 8, 2019 of the decree signing High education in the system floor reforms for prelude it happened.

of the world authoritative High study in their countries of the student independent in search of knowledge independent It is very important to master it is given Independent research in the student personal thought freedom is given to the matter independent approach like positive qualities to form help gives _ Independent education healthy _ competition environment service to the formation does _ Credit is a module of the system in our country current to be done a lot in people " Credit - module system himself what ?" said the question appear did _ Credit is a module system , this - education organize reach process being and teaching module technologies summation and credit measure based on evaluation is a model . This system of teaching innovative to technologies to be justified just like that just arrived no longer complicated process too is considered Credit module in the system main issue: of students independent work provide ; students knowledge rating based on evaluation issue is relevant . new current done this system teacher and of the student the same in cooperation performance for the ground prepared . Because pedagogue modular in education to the listener given science materials consistent way his explanation _ assimilation process organization , lesson training manage necessary _ A student while given independent education assimilation for object towards independent movement does , strives . The greatest attention credit - module in the system of students independent education to get directed will be _ In this system given independent education perform , given the object assimilation in the process in students independent study , study , education to the system new outlook with look , creative thinking is necessary practical and theoretical knowledge take over such as skills is formed . In general independent _ _ education, student in person professional of skill to increase the work to the process positive approach service does _

Summary as that's it note we reach maybe a loan module in the system independent education organize achieve - pedagogue and student in cooperation take to go cool process _ Independent education skills _ formation of students competitive frame, professional specialist to be provides.

CREDIT MODULE – A MODERN EDUCATION STYLE

Justice of the ministry legal in technical schools of education credit module system in use . This is it system Ministers Decision No. 359 of June 10, 2021 with approved Uzbekistan Republic Justice of the ministry legal in technical schools of education credit module in the system study process organize reach order about statute requirements based on in order put in

First of all that's it to emphasize yes , modern of education such style study processes quality to increase service does _ This is it system education to the recipient oriented , education get , education to give and education receivers knowledge evaluation of processes transparency principle based on loans collection and from transfer consists of

Credit - education get to the results according to student by in a particular subject mastered study of download measure unity _

Legal in technical schools study process training (audience training , practice and independent of work organize) and _ control (modules according to knowledge to be assimilated and their the results assessment) from activities organize found _

Study process students , teacher employees and administration in the middle open communication in the form of to the student directed approach based on will be planned . This in progress of students Demand and desires discussion will be done . All interested parties education of the program creation and of appropriation constructive to the discussion attraction to be done can _ Such in discussions students representatives sound to give the right through participation reach can _

Legal in technical schools student one 30 credits per semester , one study 60 credits per year collect need _ Semester during student by appropriation must has been loans volume study in the plan shown mandatory and selection sciences own into takes _ A student his own personal education trajectory in formation each one semester 30 credits for in size sciences to master mean catch , they in the composition study in the plan mandatory sciences to be a must

Legal in technical schools credit module system Credit collect and of moving Europe model (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System – ECTS) . according to organize done _

References:

1. "Development of the higher education system of the Republic of Uzbekistan until 2030 on approval of the concept" No. PF-5847 of October 8, 2019 decree.
2. Ishmuhammedov R. In education innovation . – Tashkent: "Science", 2010.